Palisades Interstate Park in New Jersey offers a variety of cross-country ski trails ranging from beginner to expert. Marked and maintained ski trails are located at State Line Lookout, which is two miles north of Exit 2 on the Palisades Interstate Parkway. Parking is free.

Skiers may use the six marked ski trails and the closed section of Old Route 9W during daylight hours only. The trails at State Line have been specifically cleared and marked for skiing, but skiers are urged to wait for a 4-inch snow cover before attempting to use them. The other hiking trails in the park may also be used for cross-country skiing, but not all of these trails are suitable for skiing. Skiers should scout any trail before attempting to ski it.

Lookout Inn is operated by the park and offers a breakfast, lunch and snack menu, restrooms and a wide variety of books, gifts, maps and other items of interest. State Line Lookout and the Inn are open year-round 7 days a week, weather permitting. Call Park Headquarters (201-768-1360) or Lookout Inn (201-750-0465) ahead of time to confirm that the area is open.
